amendment placed upon it.

Senator Spooner's amendment provides that the President is requested within reasonable time to acquire either the Panama Canal. Company's route, at a price not exceeding $40,000,000 and go ahead with digging a canal upon it at an expense not exceeding $135,000,000, or in his discretion, he is to acquire the Nicaragua route and proceed with the work of digging a canal upon it at a total cost not exceeding $185,000,000, or in his discretion, he is to acquire the Nicaragua route and proceed with the work of digging a canal upon it at a total cost not exceeding $185,000,000.

This is the outcome of the canal muddle that has been most expected in Washington. here are phases of the canal question, such as the title that the Panama company can give, that Congress probably could not unravel until next summer, and then there would be no time for passing a bill. All this work must be done through the State Department, anyway, so the administration leaders have concluded that, if such a thing be possible, they will get Congress to authorise the President to close a bargain for whichever route may seem best to him and his advisors.

A strong fight was made against the bill by representatives of the Commercial Cable Company, which claims to have let contracts for the construction of the first link in a private cable for a similar purpose from San Francisco to Honolulu. They propose to charge $1.50 a word, where Representative Corliss's bill provides a rate of $1 a word. Mr. Corliss believes the first battle, won today, will be followed by other victories.

LACEY IN THE WAY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) National irrigation, as proposed by the bill drawn up after much labor by Senators and Representatives from arid-land States, got a black eye from arid-land States, got a black eye fooday when Representative Lacey of Lowa came out against that bill, and predicted that it would be beaten in the House by 15e votes. Mr. Lacey's opinion upon matters of legislation is not always final, but in this case has advantage, being chairman of the House Committee on Public Landa, and will, in consequence, have considerable to do with handling an irrigation bill.

It is ciaimed that English and other foreign corporations are in control of all important public utilities and that there are a thousand Americans awaiting to invest capital in various enterprises just as soon as Congress makes it possible for them to do so.

Bepresentative Cooper, chairman of the Committee on Insuiar Affairs of the House, has received many urgent appeals from the people in this country and in the Philippines, asking that legislation for the islands be hastened as much as possible. Mr. Cooper is chafing somewhat under enforced delay, but says he hopes and believes chafing somewhat under enforced de-lay, but says he hopes and believes that Congress will open a field for free and safe investment of American capi-tal in the Philippines before the pres-granted by Spain when the Philippines were the property of Spain. European monopolies are still operating under them, and are claiming that they cannot be revoked. This is a disputed point, and will have to be determined in the courts at some time or other. Probably the issue will be made when prohibition against American capital is removed, for no one seems interested in making a test case at present."

The government of Holland has offered in the most friendly terms to help in bringing about peace in South Africa. In a communication to the British government, the Dutch government suggests that it might be permited to act as a sort of diplomatic agent for the Boer delegates. The government, however, expressly disavows any attempt at intervention, and does not mention any terms.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There is little disposition to accept Balfour's statement as an indication that the dawn of peace in South Africa is near, and far less that it has already come. While nothing is actually known of the contents of the Netherlands communication, one newspaper claims to have good authority for saying it simply suggested an offer of Holland's good soffices toward ending the war. It is couched in most friendly terms, and shows no disposition to officiously intervene.

There is every reason to believe, adds this authority, that in view of past ministerial professions, the reply of the British government, when it is published, will show that the offer has been courteously declined, on the ground that any overtures must proceed from Boer leaders or someone authorized to speak in their behalf. Whether or not this unofficial statement proves true, it fits in with the very general assumption that there is no definite ground for believing that Holland's action is the outcome of communications between other powers. concessions, which, he asserted, would redound to the great advantage of the American Sugar Refining Company. The present movement, he said, was only another chapter in the inevitable conflict between the domestic sugar producers of this country and the refining company, the latter seeking to crush the former.

A bubble which had been pricked, he said, was that Cuba was suffering from starvation. This idea had been industriously encouraged by the pamphleteering of the sugar company, and yet the claim had been torn to pleces during these hearings. Representative Hopkins of Illinois questioned the witness as to whether any concessions to Cuba would injure the beet-sugar industry. Mr. Carey declared that injury in such case was inevitable.

Representative Hopkins said Mr. Carey's assertion of injury to the beet sugar was only an assumption, and he expressed the belief that a reduction could be made of a certain percentage without destroying the beet-sugar mustry.

HAD KIDNEY TROUBLE

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Gertrude Warner Scott Cured By the Great Kidney Remedy,

Vinton, Iowa, July 18th, 1801.

DR. KILMER & CO., Binghamton, N. Y.

Gentlemen: In the summer of 1873, I was taken violently ill. My trouble began with pain in my stomach and back, so severe that it seemed us if knives were cutting me. I was freated by two of the best physicians in the county, and consulted another. None of them suspected that the cause of my trouble was kidney disease. They all told me I had cancer of the stomach, and would die. I grew so weak that I could not walk any more than a child a month old, and I only weighed sixty pounds. One day mybrother saw in a paper your advertisement of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. He bought me a bottle at our drug store and I took it. My family could see a change in me, for the better, so they obtained more and I continued the use of Swamp-Root regularly. I was so weak and run down that it took considerable time to build me up again. I am now well, thanks to Swamp-Root, and weigh 148 pounds, and am keeping house for my husband and brother, on a farm. Swamp-Root cured me after the doctors had falled to do me a particle of good.

on account of the Chinese New Year's festivities.

While the Manchurian treaty is almost ready to sign, it probably will not be signed until after the new year. Russia has not committed herself in writing to a reply to the written statement to the Chinese plenipotentiaries, containing the objection of the latter to the treaty, but it is learned upon the highest authority that Paul Lessar, the Russian Minister to China, has verbally conceded all China's principal objections to the treaty.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—The victory of Maresa, a 20-to-1 shot, was one of the features of the racing at Oakiand today. After running second to san Vensdo the first part, she took command, and in a drive won by a neck from King Dellis. Sweet Tooth was heavily played, but received a or ride, and was beaten a nose for cond money. The Pride, who was 7-to-5 favorite, made a poor show. Montana Peeriesa, with "Long-t" Conley up, won the first race, at a of 12 to 1. The other events went favorites. In the two-year-old race she had to be ridden hard to beat and got away poorly. Unnie O'Connor is no longer riding Green Morris. The owner was not made with the ride the jockey gave mice Saturday, and today he subhated L. Jackson on the mare. Comnor said that he would no longer seed for Morris, and the latter agreed as ending of the engagement. Re-THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

ENGLAND. DEERS OF THE REALM AS INJURED INNOCENTS.

Claim That They Were Victims of Wright and not His Confederates-Babes in the Financial Woods Ignorant of What Was Doing.

IBT THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.1 LONDON, Jan. 28.—[By Atlantic Cable.] In the resumption in the bank-ruptcy court of inquiry into the affairs of the London and Globe Finance Corporation, Limited, the receivers read a letter from the Marquis of Dufferin, denying that he had been a party to Whittaker Wright's speculations which had resulted in losses amounting to £1,700,000.

His Lordship said he would have considered himself highly criminal had he allowed the shareholders' money thus to be gambled away.

The examination of Lieut.-Gen. Hon. Somerset J. Gough-Caithorpe, one of Whittaker Wight's co-directors, furnished endless anusement in court. After saying he had properly purchased his holdings in the companies, the witness admitted that he knew practically nothing of city finance. He had such perfect faith in Whittaker Wright that he followed him blindly. When the London and Globe lost £750,000 in Lakeview speculation, he, knew nothing of it. When £250,000 was given to the British-American Corporation, he thought the London and Globe was so wealthy that it could afford such a gift. He did not consider it his duty to exercise control over Whittaker Wright. The witness was principally occupied in signing thousands of share pertificates.

Lord Edward Pelham-Clinton, another of the states of t certificates.

Lord Edward Pelham-Clinton, an other of the directors who had just come off duty as groom-in-waiting to the King, also said he purchased his hares of the London and Globe with his own money. He knew practically nothing of Whittaker Wright's speculation, and only heard of the loss of £760,000 in Lakeviews after the liquidation. board, he believed the shareholder were safe in Whittaker Wirght

McFarlan, nearly 70 years old, last night tried to nearly 70 years old, last night tried to end his existence by taking laudanum. He left pitiable letters telling the story of his discouragement, because he can make only enough to eat and never will go to the poorhouse. His pians miscarried, the dose he took being too small, and he was discovering too small, and he was discovered and resuscitated. He works at the dairy of T. T. Rens of Old Town, has po family, so far as known, and is an old resident of this vicinity.

The trial of the Hall diamond-stealing case was begun all over again this morning, and a new jury is being secured. The codefendants this morning set before the court supplementary pleas, complaining that they are kept in jeopardy for this offense too long a time. These pleas were received by the court without comment. The challenging of the jury is dragging, and the defense is using what dilatory tactics are possible.

"TWO JURORS

Serious Charge Made by Gen. Post.

Raker and Spencer Get Very Feverish.

Fervent Declaration in Rebuttal-Post Claims He Can Prove it.

IRY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M. ALTURAS, Jan. 28.—Sam Parker, the most important witness put on the stand by the defense in the Lookout stand by the defense in the Lookout lynching case, was excused shortly before noon adjournment, cross-examination and re-direct examination having been concluded.

Several very lively bits of repartee occurred during the session, and Gen. Post, for the prosecution, ended a war of words between counsel by making the declaration that he expected to put a witness on the stand to prove that at least two of the jurymen would not convict under any circumstances.

Parks's impudent demeanor, so mani-Parks's impudent demeanor, so manifest during his cross-examination yes-terday, was again apparent today. His story of the happenings at Myers's hotel and vicinity on the night of the lynching, was continued, and generally agreed well with the testimony he of-fered on direct examination, thouse agreed well with the testimony he offered on direct examination, though his memory seemed to fall him on one or two apparently important points.

Among the questions asked Parka, was one regarding his doings January 2, when it is alleged Parks, Jerve Kregs, Herry Knox and others watched Stewart's Hall for the purpose of heading off Hutton, who had been taken there by friends, defendants olaimed, for the purpose of getting a confession.
Parks said he could walk anywhere he pleased as long as he behaved himself; that he suspected "Some dirty work was going on," though he stated with positiveness that the real reason why he went on the upper porch of Stewart's hotel was to get a good view of the two. Asked why he and his companions followed Attorpeys Sturrevant and Boyd that night, the witness confidence as to the outcome of this case.

Raker: Your Honor, we demand an explanation of Gen. Post's remark.

Post: You'll get it, then. I did not care to bring the matter up, but as long as you ask it I will state that I have been told that the defense has two jurymen who will not convict under any circumstances.

Spencer: It is false. Who ever told you that lied, and I will tell him so in spite of all his guns.

Raker: The man who said that is a deliberate, maliclous, willful liar, and I object to the remarks of Mr. Post. They are made for the benefit of the jury.

They are made for the benefit of the jury.

Post: I may prove it later by putting a witness on the stand.

During this little scene the defense constantly made remarks regarding "the twelve good men and true" in the jury box, Judge Harris was especially active in this regard, and he was admonished by the court to act as a gentleman and lawyer and to stop "playing to the gallery."

MRS. MYERS TESTIFIES.

MRS. MYERS TESTIFIES.

IBI THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) ALTURAS, Jan. 23.—Mrs. L. L. Myers, wife of Judge Myers, one of the defendants in the case, and mother of Mrs. Oilie Gibbons, who testified several days ago, was called to the stand. She testified as to happenings in the upper part of Myers's Hotel the night of the lynching substantially as testified to by her daughter. Mr. Myers had gone down stairs, and her daughter, Mrs. Crowley, was very hysterical. Mr.
Myers returned, and coming up stairs said, with an oath, that he would kill some of those men down there.

"We women folk." Mrs. Myers testified, "knew what that meant."

Just what was meant was not brought out either in direct or in crossexamination. MRS. MYERS TESTIFIES.

Many definitions have been offered of what constitutes the height of impu-dence. Perhaps a good example of this is found in the case of a Whittier man, who recently wrote to The Times for the address of an leastern woman who is looking for a husband, and not only falled to inclose a stamp for reply, but left I cent postage due on his letter, separate exhibit at St. Louis, as they did with much success at the Midwin-ter Fair in San Francisco. Book of the Law—Deputy Constable Unable to Find Missing Volume.

As a result of a schism in the Talmud Torah Benevolent Association, Deputy Constable Brakesuhler has for several days been acouring the city with a search warrant in quest of a copy of the Sephira Torah.

Brakesuhler has a very vague idea of what a Sephira Torah is like, and there is some question as to whether he would recognize it if he were to run across it. It has been represented to him, however, that it is a Hebrew Bible or cabalistic book of the law.

This particular volume is a very valuable one, and was ordered by officers of the Talmud Torah Benevolent Association from some Jewish publishing house in the East, at great expense. It was shipped by Wells-Fargo express, and was intended for use in a synagogue recently erected by one of the orthodox Jewish congregations. But the big book has disappeared, whereat there is lamentation in Israel.

The sacred volume was taken out of the express office all right, and was on exhibition at a recently-held Hebrey cerembnial. The names of all of those who subscribed toward the fund for the purchase of the book were to be inscribed in it. But while the names were being enrolled, H. Fischer, junk dealer and ex-deputy constable, appeared on the scene with several other interested parties and a police detective, and objected to the proceedings, also demanding custody of the sacred volume disappeared and has not since been found.

Now the Talmud Torah Benevolent Association, through its president, San Weisberger, sues to recover the lost Book of the Law. A search warrant of the confusion which ensued, the sacred volume disappeared and has not since been found.

HIS ENJOYMENT OF A GOOD JOKE.

There was nothing that he enjoyed more than a social time with friends at dinner. He always entered into the spirit of the occasion, and contributed his full share of merriment. And once aroused he showed a side of his character that few were acquainted with. He enjoyed jokes to the full measure, and was a pleasant tease. When he once had a joke on me he rung all the changes; and no one enjoyed a joke on himself more thoroughly than he did.

In 1897, when I was a tenderfoot, recently arrived in Washington, he asked me to give up a dinner engagement with some gentlemen, to fill up the table, as an emergency man, at a dinner to be given at the White House that night. I declined saying I had a better thing—not knowing that an invitation to the White House was equivalent to a social command. This joke on me was a guest at my house for several days, or a member of a house party, his flow of genial spirits began at the breakfast table and continued uninterrupted all day. He seemed to feel as if he were on a vacation, and had the joyous spirit of a big boy home from school, always looking after the comfort of others, with never, apparently, a thought for himself. An ideal homebody was William McKinley, and the American fireside was a shrine of worship with him.

At one of our house parties we had a flashlight photograph taken of the dinner guests. He was particularly fond of this dinner picture because it contained a splendid likeness of Mrs. McKinley.

When McKinley laughed, he laughed, heartily all over, and was a perfect.

HIS FIRST FOOTBALL GAME. He was never much inclined, I be-lieve, to take an active part in ath-letics, though his simple, normal habits of life kept him always in excellent condition physically and mentally. He proved the enduring sturdiness of his frame by his hard service in the Civil War, and by the tremendous amount ever there was music about him. I recall many Sunday evening home concerts. Every one was singing, and he would call for "Nearer, My God, to Thee" and "Lead, Kindly Light." The radiance on his face when he sang those old favorite hymns, as if his whole soul was in it, is to me a sacred memory picture of William McKinley.

He would urge me to try to sing,
and insisted I had a sweet tenor voice,
but the pleasant charm of the happy occasions was never marred by my vocal efforts.

I knew I could not sing, but I listened; the echoes of those happy hours will linger with me as long as I live. The little singing parties in our parlor after dinner were always his delight.
QUIET HOURS OF SMOKING AND

QUIET HOURS OF SMOKING AND CHATTING.

I got the closest revelations of William McKinley's character, I think, in our quiet hours of smoking and chatting, when all the rest had retired.
Far past midnight we have sat many times talking over those matters which friends always discuss—and the closer I came to the man the more lovable his character appeared. Every time we met there was revealed the gentie, growing greatness of a man who knew men, respected them and loved them.
Never was it the personal interests of William McKinley that he discussed, but those of friends, or his party, and above all, of the people. His clearcut conscientiousness was pronounced.
In these heart-to-heart talks—friend to friend—in the calm serenity of the night's quiet hours, we felt the ties of our life's friendship growing stronger, as we simply sat and puffed and looked in each other's faces. These home smoking chats are the treasured memories of a man who loved mankind much more than he did himself, and who had consecrated his career to the people. He always was interested in business and industrial affairs, and un-

Pan-American Congress Considering a Compulsory Arbitration Plan for the Settlement of Pecuniary Claims.

THY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.1 CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 28.—The project for an international Court of Claims has been presented to the Pan-American Conference. Though it has not attracted the same amount of attention as the arbitration treaty, it is really of even greater practical im-tention as the arbitration treaty, it is really of even greater practical importance. It is, itself, a compulsory arbitration plan, applied, however, only to controversies involving nothing but pecuniary claims. Article one of the projected convention follows:

"The high contracting parties agree to submit to arbitration all claims for pecuniary loss or damage which may be presented by their respective citiens, and which, in accordance with international law, can be submitted through diplomatic channels, and cannot amicably be adjusted through auch channels, provided such claims exceed the sum of $18,000 gold; and, provided further, that such claimants shall not have voluntarily served or aided, subsequently to the ratification of this protocol, the enemies of the government against which the claim is presented."

Article 2 provides for submit claims of this character to the manent court of arbitration.

Harry Hill's Death Due to Inhaling Noxious Vapors—Young Bride Dons Widow's Weeds.

Widow's Weeds.

The attachés of Constable George Brown's office turned out in force yesterday to show their respect for one of their late fellow-deputies, Harry Hill.

Up to a few months ago Hill was a robust young man, hale, happy, and with the prospect of long life before him. Last November he led to the altar a handsome young bride, and immediately thereafter went to Clifton. Ariz, to work in a bakery. The sulphur fumes from a big smelter near by sickened him and so impaired his lungs that he was compelled to return to Los Angeles, arriving here on Christmas eve. Quick consumption developed and he declined rapidly, dying last Saturday. Through his entire illness his young wife nursed him devotedly, and was almost distracted with grief when he died.

Hill died poor, but his former associates generously provided for his funeral, and he was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in Rosedale Cemetery. He had no relatives here except his wife, but an aged mother survives him at Monticello, Ill.

and turnishing of the symnasium, and allowed them but $2500 to complete the building, no money is available to furnish it when done. The board, however, decided to spend $100 for rough benches, that the building may be used for some other purpose.

Messrs, Collins and Louis were appointed to represent the board at a joint meeting of all the State Normal boards, to be held in this city, on April 2. President Variel of the local board and President Pierce of the Normal School are also members of the joint meeting, by virtue of their offices.

The important question to be decided at the joint meeting is, whether only graduates of the high schools or those who pass the prescribed examination, shall be admitted to the normal schools, instead of admitting from the grammar grades, as at present.

Pioneer Elijah Moulton, Who Came Nearly Sixty Years Ago, to Be Laid Away Tomorrow-Fine, Fearless Char acter of the Frontier.

Yesterday morning a pioneer of pioneers passed away in Los Angeles. Elijah Moulton died at the advanced age of 81, at his home, corner of Daly street and Alhambra avenue.

Mr. Moulton came first to Los Angeles in 1844, being one of the very first men of the Anglo-Saxon race to make this his home. He was then but a little past 20, yet he had left his home in Canada a good many years before, and Canada a good many years before, and had trapped wild fur-bearing animals all the way across the continent. He was one of the very few here to wel-Los Angeles, and he at once took the

that the loss had endangered the existence of the department of which he was head, and sixty-three charges, including embezziement, submitting false reports and misconduct and mismanagement of the insurance department were made.

At the twenty-third bession, just concluded, the verdict of acquittal was rendered. The evidence which the defehse produced was to the effect that $500,000 had been loaned on good security and since paid back to the treasury.

Sluggish Intellect Caused By Coffee.

"Careful inquiry in the school-room developed the fact that those children who are habitually given coffee to urink have sallow complexare habitually given coffee to drink have sallow complexion, are nervous, more or less irritable, and very sluggish intellect, or an overwrought and abnormal imagination, results of extreme nervousness. My own experience with coffee drinking kept me afflicted for some years with severe and constant headaches, with extreme nervousness at times. "I was compelled to abandon coffee altogether, and was quickly relieved of the headaches and other troubles. I was fortunate enough to secure a package of Postum Food Coffee, but my first attempt at making it was a failure. After another trial and following directions (which are very casy, by the way,) I secured a delicious drink, far superior in my mfnd to coffee. I have continued to use it from the start, and my improvement has been stendy with no ill effect at all."

More Guards Needed.

The number of hobos, vagrants and other persons convicted of misdemenors who are now doing time on the chain gang is so large that the three guards have difficulty in keeping all of the prisoners in custody. Escapes occur almost daily. Monday afternoon a prisoner made a break for liberty right at the door of the Police Station, but was recaptured after having been chased a block. Yesterday another prisoner who had fifteen days yet to serve made his escape. Owing to the fact that the prisoners are convicted only of misdemeanors, the guards hesitate to use their weapons.

GOOD NEWS OF GOOD SHOES

Sale of Jacoby Bros.' Shoe Stock Continues.

This tremendous outpouring of $125,000 worth of fine shoes is just at the height of its popularity. It has indeed become the most popular shoe sale that was ever inaugurated in Southern California. It is not only the talk of the town, but it is the talk of ever household. The savings that are made possible by this broad gauge shoe sale are great enough to argue in favor of buying a year's supply in advance.

Jacoby Bros.' shoes are good shoes. Some of the best makes of American made shoes are found in their stock. The shoes are all stylish and up-to-date. The following items may be taken as fair examples of what the sale affords.
